Beyond Borders: Redefining International Taxation

Beyond Borders is a premier international tax and law conference organized by Taxlinked.net, and this year it takes place in vibrant Barcelona from October 13-16. The event features prominent speakers and lively discussions and offers participating professionals a great array of social and networking activities.

Professionals attending Beyond Borders are founders and partners of tax, law and consultancy firms, mainly from Europe but also the United States, Canada and Latin America. The conference's size is purposefully kept at a number where participants can create and grow useful connections between themselves, while learning takes place effectively in an intimate environment. Participants will have the opportunity to focus on some of the most controversial topics within the industry.

Topics to be discussed

- Permanent Establishment and Profit Attribution as Defined by BEPS
- The 5th Money Laundering Directive: A Step Too Far?

What Our Members Have to Say About Beyond Borders

"Let me put in a plug for the conference in Barcelona. I was in the one last year in Cyprus. It was without a doubt one of the best, most educational, certainly most fun experiences that I've had in one of these things, I think ever. I think Barcelona is a slightly better location than Cyprus and, if anybody is on the fence, I would hope that you'd get yourself over to Barcelona."

“I’m really looking forward to exchanging views with the conference delegates. It’s important to learn from others as this enhances the overall experience.”

- Dr. Peter Wilson, PB First Global Tax Advisers, Dubai

“I am delighted to be speaking at the Taxlinked conference in October and I am looking forward to engaging with related stakeholders and interested parties in Barcelona.”

- Dr. Nicholas Ryder, Professor of Financial Crime, UWE Bristol, UK

“I am proudly one of Taxlinked’s first members, so naturally I jumped at the opportunity to sponsor their first conference, Beyond Borders: International Tax into 2020, which was held in 2018 in Cyprus. I found the conference to be well organized, informative, and fun (which isn’t easy considering it is a tax conference). I also greatly appreciated the quality of the speakers and attendees and having a forum where everyone was encouraged to share their thoughts and opinions openly. ”

- Jimmy Sexton, President & CEO Esquire Group, USA, Dubai
